BELL RINGING

Given the recent news coverage of the difficulty to get volunteers to man the Salvation Army Kettles during the Christmas Campaign it is with pride that the Menands community stepped up to the plate. The Hudson Shores Rotary leads getting volunteers to ring the bell and this year is no exception. The Save More Liquor Store has been the site for more than a dozen years. Rotary has been ringing since at least 1985. This year besides the Rotary members who volunteered you have seen, Mel Horowitz, Peter Mason, Ken Rose, Dave Havmen, Jerry Steele, Maureen Long and Bill Sage. This year we were joined by pay it forward together members, Jean and Valencia Parker, Carol Darmetko, Deanna McAvoy and Rachel CoccaDott and families. Thanks to these fine people and to you for your contributions we raised a considerable amount of money to help those less fortunate.

Thanks Again, Peter Mason
