

Grow Menands

WINNERS of the 2013 GROW MENANDS CONTEST

The Village of Menands is pleased to announce the winners of the Grow Menands contest. The 2013 Most Colorful Home award goes to the residence of Patricia Brundage at 24 Hutton Street. The judges were very impressed with Patricia's use of annuals and the nice mix of different flowers and greenery. The 2013 Most Colorful Business award goes to News Channels 13 at 715 North Pearl Street. The judges especially enjoyed the unique stone beds Channel 13 uses in its landscape.

Above: Mayor Meg awards Patricia Brundage with the 2013 Most Colorful Home award.

Above: Stephen Baboulis of News Channel 13 accepts the 2013 Most Colorful Business award from Mayor Meg Grenier.

Among the finalist for Most Colorful Home were Judith Gladstone of 3 Villa Road as well as Bruce and Dorothy Maston of 216 Van Rensselaer Boulevard. Audio Visual Corporation at 213 Broadway and the Home Owners Association for Sage Estates were in the running for Most Colorful Business.

The Village of Menands is very excited by the success of the first annual Grow Menands season and wants to thank all of the residences and businesses who took that extra step to make Menands a more beautiful place to live and work in.

We encourage everyone to continue to help Menands puts its best face forward as we prepare for the 90th Anniversary next year.

A big thank you to the panel of judges who selected this year's winners including: Mayor Meg Grenier, Village Gardener Dianne MacFarland, County Executive Dan McCoy, Bill Brizzell of the Capital District Farmers Market, Lisa Godlewski Albany Representative for Cornell Cooperative Extension, and Ned Chapman of New York Flower Power.

Right: Two of our judges, Mayor Meg Grenier and County Executive Dan McCoy

