

QUALIFICATIONS FOR HOLDING OFFICE

To run for elective village office, an individual must be:

- 18 Years old
- A citizen of the United States
- A resident of the Village of Menands by day of the election

Accordingly, one could run for office in a village in which they were not a resident, so long as the individual became a resident of the village by the day of the election.